Summer Isles

The Isle of Tanera Mòr is a small family-run Island. It is the largest and only inhabited of the Summer Isles, a beautiful archipelago that lies off the coast of the North West Highlands. We have a range of self catering holiday cottages to let throughout the year. We run various creative and active residential courses. We also have a RYA Recognised sailing school, and offer sea kayak and sailing dinghies for hire. You can enjoy home made produce in our cafe, visit the Island Post Office and enjoy the abundant wildlife and stunning scenery.

With a great range of activities and breathtaking views up and down the West Coast, a warm family welcome awaits you on the Isle of Tanera Mòr.
