

Our Living Landscape

Communities leading change

18 August 2021

Programme (provisional)

Start Time	Presentation
10:00	Welcome and introduction to the conference - Boyd Alexander, CALLP Scheme Manager
10:15	Keynote speech and introduction to the land management, paths & access session - Jo Pike, CEO of Scottish Wildlife Trust
10:15 – 11:45	Land management, paths and access
10:30	Coigach and Assynt: where have all the trees gone? - Peter Lowe, The Woodland Trust
10:45	Access improvements in Coigach & Assynt - Rich Williams, John Muir Trust, and Mark Foxwell and Michelle Henley, Scottish Wildlife Trust
11:05	Supporting crofting in Coigach and Assynt - Anne Campbell, CALLP
11:20	Land management and access - Q&A session
11:45	Lunch break

- 12:45 - People, wildlife and heritage
- 12:45 Introduction to people, wildlife and heritage session - Victoria Campen, CALLP
- 12:50 Clachtoll Broch project: conserving and investigating an iconic coastal ruin - Gordon Sleight, Historic Assynt
- 13:05 Bringing learning to life with the Outdoor and Woodland Learning project - Kat Martin and Fiona Saywell, CALLP
- 13:25 High Value Open Habitat Survey - Sam Black, Nature Scot
- 13:45 A Sense of Place - Laura Hamlet, North West Highlands Geopark
- 14:00 People, wildlife and heritage Q&A session
- 14:30 Break
- 14:45 Learnings and legacy
- 14:45 – 15:50 Introduction to learnings and legacy session
- 14:50 Stories from our Community Grants Scheme - Boyd Alexander, CALLP Scheme Manager
- 15:20 The Coigach & Assynt story - Boyd Alexander, CALLP Scheme Manager
- 15:35 The National Lottery Heritage Fund: supporting Scotland's landscapes - Holly Watson - National Lottery Fund Scotland
- 15:45 Looking to the future - Sarah Robinson, Director of Conservation, Scottish Wildlife Trust
- 16:00 Learnings and legacy Q&A session
- 16:15 – 16 - 30 Thank you and close